

Prof. Sebastian Giebel is an internal medicine, hematology and clinical transplantation specialist. He is head of the Department of Bone Marrow Transplantation and Onco-Hematology and Deputy Director for Clinical Matters in Maria Skłodowska-Curie National Research Institute of Oncology in Gliwice, Poland. Prof. Giebel is the President of the Polish Adult Leukemia Group (PALG) and the Polish Lymphoma Research Group (PLRG), the Secretary of the Acute Leukemia Working Party of the European Society for Blood and Marrow Transplantation (EBMT), board member of The Polish Society of Hematology and Transfusion Medicine, member of the European Working Group for Adult Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia. An author of over 250 scientific papers, mainly in the field of hematology and hematopoietic cell transplantation. In 2017 he was awarded Jędrzej Sniadecki Medal of the Polish Academy of Sciences, the highest national distinction in the field of medicine.